When: Tuesday, August 6, 2013 5:30 p.m.

Where: 40th Street and Orange Avenue (Teralta Park)

What: Teralta Park Inaugural National Night Out Event

Who: Marti Emerald, City Councilmember District 9
Todd Gloria, City Councilmember District 3
Chief William Lansdowne, Chief of Police
Dana Brown, Commissioner, Commissioner, San Diego Gang Commission
Elizabeth Castillo-Duvall, Principal, Central Elementary School
Residents of the Corridor & Teralta West Neighborhoods
Liz Duval, Principal, Central Elementary School

Visuals: A booth depicting the actions of neighborhood groups in the positive transformation of Teralta Park through photos, drawings and journaling.

Why: The Inaugural Teralta Park National Night Out event is a celebration of the partnership between residents, city officials and other local stakeholders in transforming Teralta Park into a safe and family-friendly neighborhood gem. The event will take place from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and will highlight the unique history of the park, celebrate the community's accomplishments and promote continued positive changes in the neighborhood. The Teralta Park National Night Out will bring together residents, business owners and organizations and will host free activities for all ages such as, music, a BBQ, raffle, and candlelight walk for peace around the park.
